

CRAZY TAILOR STABS SHOP GIRL

Joseph Fanelli, When Temporarily Insane, Attacks Crowd of Young Women in Twenty-third Street and Wounds One.

Joseph Fanelli, a tailor, who says he is thirty years old and who lives at No. 47 East Seventeenth street, was arrested in Yorkville Police Court today charged with stabbing one girl and attempting to stab a score of others at Twenty-third street and Third avenue last evening.

Fanelli appeared on the street armed with a knife and a pair of scissors when the street was crowded with shop girls going to their homes. A number of girls were standing on the corner waiting for the surface cars when he appeared among them flourishing the knife and scissors and mumbled incoherently.

The girls ran, but one of them was not quick enough and he plunged the knife into her arm. He was still pursuing her when Policeman Hauptmann of the East Twenty-second street station, knocked the weapons from his hands and took her to the station-house and locked up.

Fanelli thought to have been temporarily insane.

MAKES RAID AT POINT OF PISTOL

Policeman Terrorizes Seven Men Charged with Gambling and Orders Woman to Station-House to Summon Patrol.

Seven negroes were arraigned in the West Side Police Court today, six of them charged with aiding and abetting a gambling-house, and one of them, William J. Thurman, with being the proprietor of the place.

Thurman's house at No. 220 West Sixty-third street was raided shortly before midnight last night by Policeman Brownwell, who rushed into the house and drawing his revolver, ordered the men at the gaming table to take seats. They were greatly frightened, and sat in a row with the policeman standing over them. Brownwell then sent a negro woman to the station-house.

"Tell them I want two policemen and a patrol wagon," he ordered the woman.

The woman ran to the station-house and delivered the message. The two extra policemen and a patrol wagon were placed under arrest. A "Klondike" outfit, six packs of cards and $12.75 were found in the room where the men were alleged to have been gambling.

EDWARD M. FIELD PRONOUNCED SANE

Son of Cyrus W. Field Has Been Under Observation in Psychopathic Ward of Bellevue Hospital.

The doctors in the psychopathic ward at Bellevue Hospital have decided that Edward M. Field, who is a son of the late Cyrus W. Field, and who was taken to the hospital a week ago, is not insane.

At the request of his son, Dr. Cyrus Field, of the Board of Health, he was sent to a medical ward in the hospital for treatment.

Edward M. Field, after having been out of sight for several years, came into prominence a few weeks ago when he visited a friend in Gramercy Park. His actions were so peculiar that the friend telegraphed his son and it was decided to send him to the hospital for observation.

SCHOOLBOY KILLED BY HIS CLASSMATE

Paul Jellick Shot by Henry Schaze in Chicago After the Youths Had Quarrelled About a Girl Companion.

CHICAGO, April 6.—A quarrel over a girl, their companion at school, has culminated in the killing of one sixteen-year-old boy by another. The victim was Paul Jellick and the slayer was Henry Schaze. He was arrested and has confessed the killing, but declares he shot in self-defense.

The boys, who were classmates, became enemies when Schaze escorted a girl pupil from school a year ago. The youths fought first, when Jellick declared the other had tried to "cut him out," and in a flat battle behind the school building Schaze was victor over Jellick.

After that time, it is said, the boys would quarrel every time they met until Schaze organized his companions into a bodyguard, and the feud spread throughout the school. Both boys often would be accompanied by bands of supporters, and challenges were frequent. The clash finally came when, after quarrelling for several minutes, Jellick struck the other in the face and threw him to the ground. Schaze then drew a revolver and shot Jellick, who died almost instantly.

MISSING NEWARK GIRL FOUND HERE

Annie Hinkel, Who Strangely Disappeared from Home, Discovered on Seventh Avenue Acting in Peculiar Manner.

The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Annie Hinkel, twenty-one years old, who had been missing from her home at No. 256 Washington street, Newark, N. J., has been cleared up by the police of the West Thirty-seventh street station.

A patrolman on duty at Seventh avenue and Thirty-ninth street, saw a pretty young woman acting in a peculiar manner and after questioning her took her to the station. She gave her name as Annie Hinkel and said she lived in Newark.

The father was notified and came over to get her today. She was confined in an insane asylum four months, but was let out on parole a short time ago. She could not or would not explain where she had been during the past week, but had evidently found friends as she looked well cared for.

Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without your or your physician's knowledge of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.
